

Feature Promotion Path

How Gradiance decides whether a capability becomes advanced, stays optional, or is shelved.

New capabilities are not promoted by implementation alone; they move through benchmark, realism, and review before entering the advanced tier.